CDDO Council of Community Members Announced

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – New members of the Sedgwick County Community Developmental Disability Organization's (CDDO) Council of Community Members began their duties on January 1, 2002. The Council makes suggestions and recommendations regarding the services and programs available to developmentally disabled individuals in Sedgwick County.

Nominations for the 37-member Council were solicited in Fall 2001 in two categories: primary consumers, who are developmentally disabled individuals; and secondary consumers, who primarily work with the disabled or are family members of a developmentally disabled person. Each will serve a 3-year term.
